New Summer Sermon Series – “Called In” Proverbs 3 asks us not to despise the Lord’s discipline, as it is a sign of love for us. We find these signs of God’s love everywhere. Sometimes we find them in moments that call us out in terms of our actions or behaviors. We also find them in moments that call us in – inviting us back into right relationship. This series explores the ways in which God continues to call us into community, and to divine relationship. Sometimes being called in means being called away from areas where we have clearly done wrong, caused harm, or fallen short. In other moments, God may simply be working to refine us further, encouraging us to continue a path toward faithful maturity. In every instance, however, God is inviting us into something better, fuller, and more holy.
